

1990 YEAR-END INDEX

B

Batra, Vinod. "Fiber in the Subscriber Loop." If rural areas are to enjoy the services of the fiber age, small telcos must take the lead in building the pipeline. (Winter, no. 1, p. 28).

Bloomfield, Shirley and Wacker, Tom. "Dusting Off the Cobwebs: An Interview with REA Administrator Gary Byrne." If the thought of working with the Rural Electrification Administration to get some green makes you see red, hold on. REA's new man in town is out to jump start the agency. (Summer, no. 3, p. 46).

—, "NTCA Members Capture Capitol Hill: A Report on the 1990 Legislative Conferences." (Summer, no. 3, p. 56).

Bolduc, Greg. "Automatic Meter Reading." (Winter, no. 1, p. 74).

Bolton, David. "The Quest for a Drug Testing Policy." The prevalence of drug use in society combined with job safety concerns force companies to take a serious look at a new personnel policy. (Spring, no. 2, p. 26).

—, "Voice Mail: The Future is Now." How to make those 12 phone buttons the keys to your—and your customers'—success. (Summer, no. 3, p. 36).

Boucher, Rick. "The Video Future: It's Time to End the Telco/Cable Restriction." A rural member of Congress urges small telcos to unite against the crossownership ban for the benefit of their subscribers. (Winter, no. 1, p. 20).

Brunner, Michael. "Executive Viewpoint." (Winter, no. 1, p. 82).

—, "Provide Rural Safeguards or Leave the MFJ Alone." (Spring, no. 2, p. 86).

—, "Light at the End of the Tunnel—Burn's Cable Legislation Frees Small Telcos." (Summer, no. 3, p. 70).

—, "REA, 'Watchdog' or 'Watch Out'—Indiana Telephone Borrowers Caught in the Crossfire." (Fall, no. 4, p. 70).

Bruns, Richard. "Workers' Compensation—the Next Crisis." (Spring, no. 2, p. 71).

C

Cosson, David. "Remember the Alamo! Remember the Maine! Remember Pearl Harbor! Remember the Cable Act?" While rural telcos may already be allowed to offer cable service, much more may be at stake. (Winter, no. 1, p. 25).

—, "Why Telcos Should Be Involved in Rural Revival." As business leaders, telcos have a responsibility to ensure that their communities thrive. (Summer, no. 3, p. 22).

—, "If You Think Nynex's Troubles Mean Nothing to You, Think Again." (Fall, no. 4, p. 38).

Crothers, David. "Deregulation in North Dakota: the Revolution Gets Closer to Home." (Winter, no. 1, p. 70).

D

Dickens, Benjamin and Jackson, Robert. "How Policy and Profits Will Mix for Rural Telcos." The future belongs to companies who are acquiring information-age technology and running with it. (Spring, no. 2, p. 18).

Dobson, Marguerite. "Hugo: A Telco and Its Community Weather the Storm of the Century." While Hurricane Hugo threw everything Mother Nature could muster at the Carolina coast, the real story that September day was the people-to-people response. (Winter, no. 1, p. 12).

F

Fadness, Roger. "The Proof Is in the Planning." How one co-op brought wireless cable television to southwestern North Dakota. (Summer, no. 3, p. 41).

G

Gallottini, Giovanni. "An RTJ Special Report: Building the Rural Telecommunications Infrastructure. How SST Can Help." To build the proper rural telecommunications infrastructure, emphasis must shift from technology and equipment to rural services and applications. (Summer, no. 3, p. 27).

Gordon, Gil. "Telecommuting: Dialing Up the Remote Office." Telecommunications links help give the old idea of going to the office a whole new meaning. (Fall, no. 4, p. 26).

Green, Paul. "A Preview of the 1990 NTCA Annual Meeting & EXPO." (Winter, no. 1, p. 48).

Guillory, Marie. "An RTJ Special Report: Building the Rural Telecommunications Infrastructure. Where We Stand—What We Need." In comments to the National Telecommunications and Information Administration, NTCA showcases member achievements and sets a course for future development. (Summer, no. 3, p. 26).

H

Hastad, Rusty and Deutscher, Dick. "Bringing Rural Fiber to the Home." (Summer, no. 3, p. 52).

House, Harry. "Trouble Under Foot: Underground Tank Regulations." (Winter, no. 1, p. 77).

—. "Using Loss Control Plans to Trim Workers' Compensation Costs." (Summer, no. 3, p. 60).

Hyde, Kent. "The Polish Connection—Polishing the Roughest Telephone System in Europe." As part of a joint conference on education and economics, Hyde explained cooperative ideology to Polish telecommunications leaders. Here are his experiences. (Fall, no. 4, p. 32).

J

Jackson, Julia. "The Last-Minute Tackle on Taxes." (Spring, no. 2, p. 80).

L

Lehner, Christopher. "The 1990 NTCA Annual Meeting and EXPO." An overview. (Spring, no. 2, p. 36).

—. "Toward Rural Revival: The Telco-Community Partnership." Case studies from across the country show that small telcos are quick to take the lead in bolstering their local economies. (Summer, no. 3, p. 10).

M

Morsfield, Chris and Lehner, Christopher. "Technology and Rural Education: A Telephone Co-op on an Interactive Mission." (Spring, no. 2, p. 76).

N

Norton, Marlee. "Back in the USSR: Growing Pains for Soviet Cooperatives." (Winter, no. 1, p. 34).

P

Petersen, Sheldon. "Setting the Stage for Financing Success." By responding quickly to industry change and member needs, the Rural Telephone Finance Cooperative intends to become an even bigger player in telco financing. (Fall, no. 4, p. 19).

Phillips, Bob. "Telco/Cable Crossownership Is Important; So Is Access to Programming." As important for rural America as who provides video services is the commitment to universal access to programming. (Winter, no. 1, p. 30).

Ernst & Young Telecommunications Group

Consultants to Operating Telephone Companies Since 1969

Strategic and Financial Planning

- Market Studies
- Financial Modeling
- Accounting Systems Design
- Capital Recovery Analyses

Tax Services

- Review of Tax-Exempt Status
- Tax Effect of Significant Transactions
- Analysis of Subsidiary Tax Issues
- Representation in Tax Audits

Rate Support

- State and Federal Regulatory Analyses
- Separations and Access Studies
- Rate Design and Tariff Development
- Cost of Service Studies

Other Services

- Cable Television and Cellular
- Productivity Enhancement
- Systems Design and Implementation
- Litigation Support

1800 First Interstate Plaza
Tacoma, Washington 98402
(206) 597-7550

1225 Connecticut Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036
(202) 862-6393

Advertisers' Index

ACC 28
 ADS 42
 AT&T 58
 ATI Supply 25
 Cathey, Hutton & Associates, Inc. 40
 Ceve, Inc. 55
 CoBank 67
 Communications Data Group 2-3
 Computoservice Incorporated 72
 CSSA 56
 CTI, Inc. 37
 Ernst & Young Telecommunications Group 66
 Frederick & Warinner 46
 General Sealants, Inc. 55
 HD Electric 4
 Itelco 63
 John Staurulakis, Inc. 50
 Line-Ward Corp. 34
 Mitel Corporation 14
 National Farmers Union 47
 National Information Services 34
 National Telecom Corporation 28
 North Central Data Cooperative 61
 Northern Telecom 8-9
 NTCA 69
 NTCA/NRECA Management Search 18
 Plexsys Corporation 22
 Quintrex Data Systems 11
 Redcom Laboratories, Inc. 64
 Rockwell International 6
 RTFC 51
 Sierra Tel Logic 46
 Tektronix, Inc. 5
 Telecommunications Techniques Corporation 17
 Teletec 48
 Toner cable equipment, inc. 52
 TW Comcorp 41
 U.S. Intelco Networks 71
 Wheat, First Securities 45

R

Rhyne, Joe. "Participating Mortgage-Backed Securities: A Vehicle For Telco Investment." One North Carolina cooperative is quite happy with its decision to make use of a diversified investment vehicle. (Winter, no. 1, p. 41).

S

Sadtler, Sue. "Free the RBOCs? A Rural Perspective." (Winter, no. 1, p. 70).

— "Telcos, Cable Service, and Congress." (Fall, no. 4, p. 49)

Shotwell, Jo. "How to Bring Equal Access (and More Choices) to Your Customers." (Fall, no. 4, p. 43).

Shultz, Paul. "Who's Got Your Number? Caller ID and the Right to Privacy." They're just seven numbers, but if caller identification goes into widespread use, will privacy rights go out the window? (Spring, no. 2, p. 30).

Sims, Douglas. "Financing the Next Generation: This Is Not Your Father's Telco." What worked well yesterday may not work at all tomorrow. CoBank's president predicts a future with tighter capital, corporate consolidation, and more demanding customers. (Fall, no. 2, p. 21).

T

Taylor, Kenneth. "Don't Get Burned." (Fall, no. 4, p. 53).

V

Vellone, Joe. "Will REA Survive the '90s?" Rural Electrification Administration programs have survived for more than half a century. Will they last until the next one? (Spring, no. 2, p. 21).

— "A Short History of a Prosperous Plan—The REA Program and How It Works." You know the government lends telephone systems money. But which ones? And how much? Here are all the figures you'll ever need about an important source of telco financing. (Fall, no. 4, p. 12).

W

Westbrook, Lisa. "A Conversation with Mickey Sims." NTCA's president talks about telecommunications, rural development, and the future of the association. (Summer, no. 3, p. 17).

— "A New Cast Begins to Carve Policy: An Interview with Three FCC Commissioners." Commissioners Sherrie Marshall, James Quello, and Andrew Barrett discuss specific issues affecting rural telcos. (Spring, no. 2, p. 12).

— "Networks and Financing Hold Attention at MTA Annual Meeting." (Summer, no. 3, p. 63).